Weekend

I NEED A HERO!

For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life through Christ Jesus
Romans 6:23

The truth is that each one of us deserves death. None of us are without sin and are in desperate need of a hero.

During this weekend we will explore who Jesus is and what qualifies Him as someone we can place our trust in as our ultimate Hero.

The world tends to put a lot of different heroes in front of us and then asks us to trust in this product or trust in a company or trust in your own desires in order to be fulfilled and satisfied. But the truth is that often we are left empty and searching for true significance in a world that continues to deceive us.

This years theme is actually a cry...the same cry I made when I was 12 years old and in need of a savior. I NEED YOU JESUS!!...SAVE ME!!

We want to share that the search is over. Only Jesus can give us the hope that we desire so desperately. Join us as we discover more about Jesus...Our Hero!!

See You There,

Son Set Ministries Team

Over the past 11 years we have been blessed to have many people help in skits, worship, programming, small groups, and speaking. This year we look forward to having:

Keynote Speaker: Andy Lambert

We have tried to get this guy for years now. He will make you laugh, cry and everything in between. What we love about him the most is his heart to share the truth about the gospel. He just loves Jesus!

Program Team:

Lee Wilder & Lennie Furlough have been with this program for 11 years now and they will give everything they have to make sure that a great time is had by all.

Worship Music:

You can check them out at www.releasedworship.com

They are coming to simply pour their hearts out in worship to the King. Come join them!!

Released

Small Group Leaders:

Qualified area college students who love Jesus & know how to share the Gospel. In the past we have had students from NC State, UNC Chapel-Hill, Mount Olive College, Methodist University, East Carolina University, and Campbell University. These students participate in skits and bring high energy to the program.

Why Come?

Through the years our prayer has been to impact Jr./Sr. High youth for Christ. We want to provide an atmosphere where your youth are not at a weekend retreat but ARE A PART OF IT! We provide opportunities for large & small group interaction as well as one on one time. We desire for youth leaders to not to worry about the programming, but rather focus on spending quality time with their students. Our Father has used this weekend for His glory in many ways: to make someone laugh, to build friendships, to heal hurts, and to show a clear vision of the love found in Jesus Christ! Come be a part of what God does on this weekend!
